Raw Material Prices Outlook in FY2025 (GC Business; vs. FY2024 Results)

- Prices of fats and oils in H1 were higher than the initial assumption. Petrochemical raw material prices are expected to gradually decline in Q3 and thereafter.
- Due to the impact of petrochemical raw materials, raw material prices are expected to be approximately 1.0 billion yen less* than forecast.
- The Kao Group plans to offset increased costs and ensure profits by adjusting selling prices to reflect added value, among other measures.

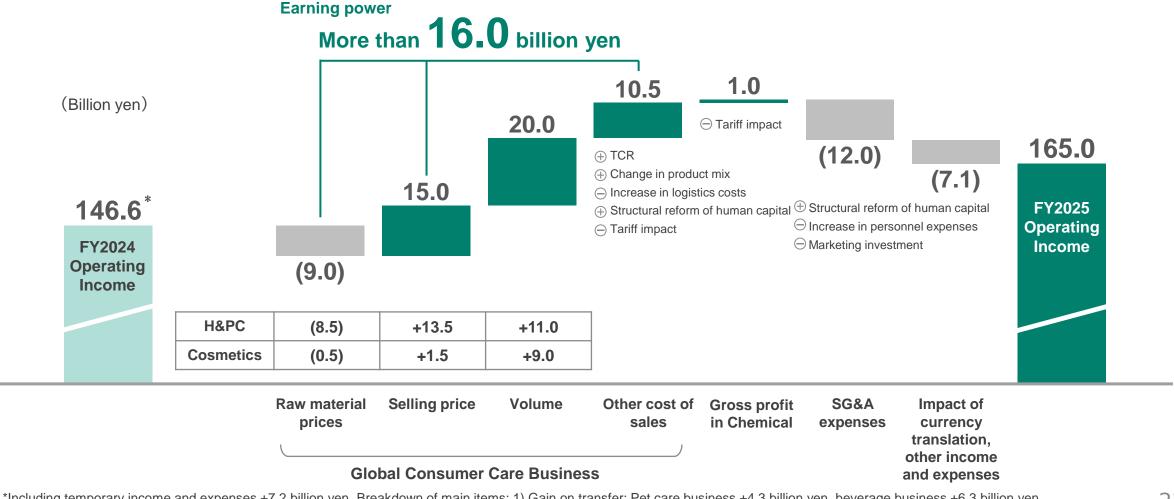

^{*} Compared with the (10.0) billion yen forecast for raw material prices announced on February 6, 2025.

Forecast of Factors in Operating Income in FY2025 (vs. FY2024 Results)

- Aim to achieve a profit increase of more than 16.0 billion yen by enhancing earning power.
- Price adjustments in response to rising raw material prices for household and personal care products will continue concurrently with plans to increase sales volume through new product launches and other measures.
- U.S. tariffs are expected to have a direct negative impact of less than 1.5 billion yen.

^{*}Including temporary income and expenses +7.2 billion yen. Breakdown of main items: 1) Gain on transfer: Pet care business +4.3 billion yen, beverage business +6.3 billion yen 2) Structural reform expenses for subsidiaries in the Americas and Europe -3.4 billion yen

^{*} Business-area ROIC is an internal indicator for strengthening management in each business. Focused on improvement rates, it is calculated using operating assets such as inventory and fixed assets as invested capital in the denominator.

Consolidated ROIC is positioned as a major KPI for the overall Kao Group. It is calculated using invested capital based on the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position in the Annual Securities Report as the denominator.

Changes in Reportable Segments (From January 2025)

To further ramp up global growth, the Kao Group restructured its organization and functions as of January 2025. 【Changes of Names】

- The "Consumer Products Business" has been renamed as the "Global Consumer Care Business."
- The "Hygiene and Living Care Business" has been renamed as the "Hygiene Living Care Business."
- The "Health and Beauty Care Business" has been renamed as the "Health Beauty Care Business." [New Establishment]
- The "Business Connected Business" has been established to further improve productivity and strengthen both internal and external collaboration for creating new businesses. The business consists of the commercial-use hygiene products that were previously included in the Life Care Business (excluding Washing Systems, LLC), as well as life care products and other products.
