About Stray Kids

Stray Kids is a South Korean K-pop group formed by JYP Entertainment in 2017 through a reality survival show of the same name. They are heavily involved in self-producing their music and writing their own lyrics. In 2024, their album "ATE" set a record as the best-selling K-pop album in the U.S. Their December album, 'SKZHOP HIPTAPE "HOP",' secured a historic six consecutive No.1 on the Billboard 200, making Stray Kids the first act to debut top of the chart with their first six chart entries. Stray Kids was also recognized as the 2000s' top-charting artists on the Billboard 200. They are currently on their most extensive world tour to date, "Stray Kids World Tour, <dominATE>". Their popularity extends beyond South Korea and Japan, reaching a global audience, including the United States.
