

Contest entry guide

Theme: "Together, we are eco-friendly"

Please think about what people can do to protect our precious global environment. In your picture, show things we can do in our daily life. Below are just a few suggestions to help you get started. You could show ways of not wasting water or electricity. Or you could show how, by reusing and recycling products, we can more completely use the materials we get from our planet. Perhaps you might want to show how using eco-friendly products helps to protect animals and plants in our important natural surroundings.

KAO International Environment Painting Contest for Children

Winner of 7th Kao International Environment Painting Contest for Children "eco together" Planet Earth Grand Prix
"Pulse of the Forest" Akira Kobayashi (15 years old, Japan)

Thoughts and wishes regarding the painting

I feel like I can hear the heartbeat of the trees when I walk into the forest. It provides me with energy. My spirit is rejuvenated. For this work, I expressed the inaudible heartbeat of the trees. I represented the voices of the forest by incorporating a heartbeat and energy into each and every detail. Furthermore, I wanted to convey that humans and life exist thanks to forests. I wanted to portray the silent voices of the forest.
